CATALOGUE.

BEACON READY-MIXED PAINTS.

WE wish to call the attention of consumers, dealers, and property owners to the quality of these paints as manufactured by us. The demand for a ready-mixed paint, strictly first class, has increased rapidly; and we made no mistake when we introduced into this market the "Beacon," — the best paint possible to manufacture.

The pigments used are pure lead and zinc, and the shades are obtained by the use of the strongest and most durable colors. They are thinned with pure linseed-oil, turpentine, and dryer; and we guarantee them to be absolutely free from water, benzine, or any alkali.

They are prepared ready for the brush; but we have found, that, in most cases, they require thinning to the extent of one quart of oil to one gallon of the paint: and thus one gallon will cover about 400 square feet, one coat; or 250 square feet, two coats.

We call attention especially to the weight of these paints. We claim that no first-class paint can be made with limits of weight at 11½ and 13½ pounds to the gallon, which is the case in all chemical and alkali paints, and in most of the cheaper goods. The "Beacon" range in weight from 16 pounds for the darkest shades, to 18 pounds for the white, — a standing proof that the proper ingredients are used to produce the best paint.

We use the United States Standard Measure.

We shall be pleased to furnish, on application, a sample-card containing all the shades.

We will manufacture any desired shade to order.

How to Ascertain Required Quantity.

Add together the number of feet in length of front and rear, and of both sides. Multiply this by the average height. Divide the result by 250, which will give the quantity of paint, in gallons, required.

One gallon of this paint covers about 250 square feet, two coats.

WHITE LEAD.
ST. LOUIS, MO.

Painters will find the "RED SEAL" brand superior to any other make of STRICTLY PURE WHITE LEAD.

It is made by the St. Louis Lead and Oil Co., from the very best refined pig lead, smelted from selected ores, and excels in Whiteness, Fineness, Body, Durability, and in its working-qualities under the brush.

We introduced this lead to the Eastern market in 1875. It at once took the front rank, which position it has ever since maintained.

Among our customers in Boston and vicinity, and throughout New England, are many of the best and most particular painters, — men who know a good article, and want it; and from them we seldom receive orders for any other brand of pure lead.

If those who have never used it will give it one trial, we are confident that they will be convinced of its merits, and give it the preference.

The price will always be as low as any of the best brands of strictly pure lead.

We solicit inquiries and orders, which will receive careful attention.

The "Red Seal" is packed in kegs of 500, 250, and 100 lbs. each, and in pails of 50, 25, and 12½ lbs.; also in 25 and 12½ lb. tin pails, and in cases of 100 lbs., assorted cans, 1 to 5.

CARPENTER, WOODWARD, & MORTON'S

JOHN L. WHITING & SON'S

PATENT BRUSHES.

ONLY a few years ago it was thought that perfection had been attained, or nearly so, in the process of making, as well as in the style and quality of, the leading staple brushes used by painters, kalsominers, and masons. This opinion, however, has been rapidly changing, until now it is universally acknowledged that the principles and methods employed in the manufacture of are great improvements over all other methods heretofore devised, and, taken together, mark the greatest step ever taken in the art of brush-making. Their novelty and entire originality have never been called in question.

We carry a full line of these brushes; but we present a list of those more commonly used, and we will furnish a complete catalogue on application.

List prices are here given, from which there is a regular discount. We remind our customers that every brush is warranted, and we are confident that one trial will prove all the manufacturers claim for them.
